

IMAGINE A PLACE WHERE DOWNTOWN IS UPTOWN AND THE RIVER RUNS BACKWARDS TWICE A DAY

DISCOVER THE SAINT JOHN REGION

With historic city streets, a plethora of world-class restaurants, charming boutiques, lovely art galleries, and the beautiful Bay of Fundy on its doorstep, Saint John is a vibrant city full of urban adventure on the edge of nature.

The Bay of Fundy, home to the world's highest tides, offers excitement and thrills in the heart of the city with the Reversing Falls Rapids. And Saint John acts as the perfect home-base for day-trips along the Fundy Coast to Fundy-St. Martins and the Fundy Trail Provincial Park.

The Saint John Region offers unspoiled historical treasures, incomparable access to nature and an arts and culture scene that is second to none.

POPULATION

Approximately 135,000 people live in the Saint John Region, and 810,000 in New Brunswick, Canada's only officially bilingual province.

CLIMATE

Saint John has a temperate climate of approximately 22°C or 72°F in summer and -3°C or 25°F in winter. (But the trick to being on the Bay of Fundy is to wear layers!)
